FESTIVE LIGHTS UNDER NORDIK NIGHTS

Step into the storybook world of Lapland, where snow-covered landscapes glow with festive magic and winter light. Combine this with the charm of Copenhagen, Stockholm, Tallinn and Helsinki, then add reindeer rides, husky adventures, Santa visits and steaming hot chocolate by crackling fires. Top it off with the Northern Lights and you've got the ultimate collection of unforgettable—and highly Instagrammable—moments.

ITINERARY

11th DECEMBER 2026: COPENHAGEN, DENMARK

Arrive in Copenhagen and transfer by your own arrangement to your central hotel. Copenhagen effortlessly blends its royal heritage with modern Scandinavian style. Colourful canals, cobbled streets, grand palaces, designer shops and cosy cafés create a vibrant, walkable city filled with culture, charm and effortless elegance.

12th DECEMBER 2026: COPENHAGEN, DENMARK

Set off this morning with your guide on a walking tour of Copenhagen's must-see sights. Hear the stories behind the city as you wander past delightful, photo-worthy houses and iconic landmarks. You may even glimpse Princess Mary as you pass the royal palace! The afternoon is then yours to enjoy at leisure.

13th DECEMBER 2026: STOCKHOLM, SWEDEN

Time to leave Copenhagen behind and travel by train to Stockholm. Stockholm spreads across 14 islands, where elegant architecture meets waterfront views. Cobblestone lanes, royal palaces, chic boutiques and world-class museums create a sophisticated Nordic city rich in culture, history and charm.

14th DECEMBER 2026: STOCKHOLM, SWEDEN

This morning join your guide for a walking tour to see the sights of Stockholm. Free time after your tour to explore on your own and wander the Old Town (Gamla Stan), browse the Christmas markets and soak up the festive atmosphere with a glass of hot glögg. Late afternoon transfer to the port for your overnight cruise.

15th DECEMBER 2026: TALLINN, ESTONIA

Tallinn captivates with its beautifully preserved Old Town, a UNESCO World Heritage treasure of cobblestone streets, medieval walls and Gothic spires. Highlights include Toompea Hill, Alexander Nevsky Cathedral, Town Hall Square, ancient guild houses and panoramic viewpoints overlooking red rooftops and the Baltic Sea. A charming blend of history and modern flair. Here you will join your guide for a walking tour of the Old Town and immerse yourself in its history and character.

16th DECEMBER 2026: TALLINN, ESTONIA

Day at leisure in Tallinn to explore this intriguing city on your own. There's always a surprise around the next corner. Don't miss a visit to the vibrant Balti Jaama Turg market with its three levels of fresh food, clothing, antiques vendors and hip eateries.

17th DECEMBER 2026: HELSINKI, FINLAND

Check out after breakfast and transfer to the port for your two hour ferry crossing to Helsinki. This is no run of the mill ferry - it's a modern cruise liner with duty free shopping, entertainment and restaurant. Never a dull moment on this crossing!

The festive season is a special time to visit Helsinki – it's a time where streets are illuminated with myriads of lights and store fronts dressed with beautiful festive displays. Afternoon at leisure to visit the Christmas Market.

Depending on the Ice Hockey League schedule, it may be possible to attend a game this evening as an optional activity. Information only available after October 2026.

18th DECEMBER 2026: HELSINKI, FINLAND

Helsinki is a compact city, making it easy to explore. This morning, your guided tour will showcase the city's most fascinating sights: the historic centre, stunning library, impressive City Hall, Parliament buildings and unique Temppeliaukio Church, also known as the Rock Church Free time for own sightseeing until early evening.

Evening departure by overnight train to Rovaniemi. Be sure to stop by the onboard restaurant for a drink with the locals and to try the legendary Finnish meatballs with mash and lingonberries.

Note: Sleeper cabins feature two single bunk beds (200x75 cm). Children under 12 share with their parents at no extra charge. A supplement applies if an additional cabin is needed.

19th DECEMBER 2026: PYHÄTUNTURI, LAPLAND

Arrive in Lapland and transfer to Pyhäntunturi. After dinner this evening, settle into a heated sleigh pulled by a snowmobile and glide through the wintry night in search of the magical Northern Lights.

20th DECEMBER 2026: PYHÄTUNTURI, LAPLAND

Ever dreamed of being a husky musher? Huskies are spirited and strong — able to pull up to five times their own weight with ease! Your adventure begins with an introductory talk about the huskies and some driving instruction. Then it's time to put your musher skills to the test as you set off through the forest with a passenger in your sleigh. Hold on to your beanie — it's going to be a thrilling ride!

21st DECEMBER 2026: PYHÄTUNTURI, LAPLAND.

Just 20 minutes from Pyhäntunturi, in the village of Luosto, lies the world's northernmost Amethyst Mine. Perched atop the fell, the Mine offers breathtaking panoramic views of the surrounding countryside. Even getting there is part of the adventure — a scenic ride in a carriage pulled by a snow tractor. After an informative presentation about the mine, it's your turn to dig for your very own lucky stone — a sure hit with the kids! The afternoon is then yours to enjoy at leisure.

22nd DECEMBER 2026: PYHÄTUNTURI, LAPLAND.

For those ready to hit the slopes, Pyhä Ski Area is ideal for beginners eager to learn downhill skiing or snowboarding. Prefer something even more active? Try scenic, invigorating cross-country skiing instead. The ski shop provides all the equipment you need, and English-speaking instructors are on hand. With floodlit slopes and trails, the adventure continues both before sunrise and after sunset.

23rd DECEMBER 2026: PYHÄTUNTURI, LAPLAND.

Today's a very special day — it's the day you meet Santa! You'll need a personal invitation for this one, and it's only given to well-behaved boys and girls, big and small. So take note — the elves are out and keeping an eye on you!

24th DECEMBER 2026: PYHÄTUNTURI, LAPLAND.

Enjoy some free time to choose from optional activities. If you're heading out on a snowmobile, you'll receive full instruction and gear before setting off.

Please note: drivers must hold a valid driving licence.

If you're looking to relax, then take the opportunity to use your included chairlift ticket and ride to the top of the fell for a breathtaking view of the surrounding landscape. If you start to feel the chill, just step into the cosy restaurant at the summit for something warm to enjoy.

Tonight's dinner is a lavish Christmas feast with an abundant hot and cold buffet — so be sure to save your appetite!

25th DECEMBER 2026: SANTA VILLAGE & OVERNIGHT TRAIN TO ROVANIEMI

Sadly, your magical days in this winter wonderland have come to an end, and it's time to say farewell to Pyhäntunturi. But the adventure isn't over yet — your next stop is Santa Village in Rovaniemi! Enjoy free time to explore and soak up the festive atmosphere of this famous destination.

Early evening departure by overnight train to Helsinki.

26th DECEMBER 2026: DEPART HELSINKI

Arrive Helsinki and continue onwards by own arrangement.
