Situated 20 minutes from Pyhätunturi in the village of Luosto, is the world's northernmost Amethyst Mine.

The Mine's, perched on top of the fell, is a unique and interesting place. Even the transfer to the Mine is exciting – in a carriage behind a snow tractor. After a presentation on the mine, it's time to dig for your own lucky stone.

No-one is too young - or old - to escape the attention of the those busy elves. You have been warned!

However, if you've not been on your best behaviour, word from the elves is that Santa does love a good Finnish Christmas pipari biscuit, so before we meet him, we'll do some biscuit baking. Better make sure these are the best biscuits ever!
